Did You Know...?

According to historians Mardi Gras dates back thousands of years to pagan celebrations of Spring & fertility.

Mardi Gras literally translates as "fat Tuesday". Merrymakers would binge on all the meat, eggs, milk and cheese that remained in their homes in preparation for 40 days of fasting before Easter.

Louisiana is the only state in which Mardi Gras is a legal holiday.

Mardi Gras is celebrated all over the world: Carnevale in Venice is famous for its masquerades; Quebec hosts the giant Winter Carnival; Germans celebrate Fastnacht with parades & costume balls; Rio De Janeiro hosts the most famous party of all - Carnival.
