YOUR HEALTH AND SAFETY

Given the continued public health concerns and our commitment to protecting guests, crew and the communities we visit, we are extending our vaccination policy requirement for the foreseeable future. As such, we will require all guests and crew to

- 1) be fully vaccinated at least two weeks prior to departure,
- 2) acknowledge vaccination status prior to sailing, and
- 3) present proof of vaccination at the pier at embarkation in order to board.

For additional details about our vaccine requirement and our robust SailSAFE health and safety program, please visit www.ncl.com/safe. As science, technology and government regulations evolve, we will update our health and safety protocols as needed and appropriate. What remains constant is our commitment to keeping safe our guests, crew and the communities we visit.

We encourage you to learn more about the efforts we are making, and how to prepare for your upcoming voyage by visiting www.ncl.com/prepare-for-your-cruise and www.ncl.com/travel-requirements-by-country.
